

TRANSFER OF HOUSING TAX CREDITS TO MINNESOTA HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY

Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes Section 462A.222 (2016) the City of Duluth is expected to receive approximately $181,350 in 2019 Low-Income Housing Tax Credits (“Tax Credits”).

The City of Duluth has entered into a Joint Powers Agreement with the Minnesota Housing Finance Agency (“Minnesota Housing”) dated April 23, 2018.

Pursuant to the above-described Joint Powers Agreement, the City of Duluth agrees to voluntarily and irrevocably transfer its entire 2019 Tax Credit distribution to Minnesota Housing.

The City of Duluth understands that by transferring the Tax Credits to Minnesota Housing the Tax Credits become part of the Minnesota Housing 2019 Tax Credit ceiling under Minnesota Statutes Section 462A.222 and the City of Duluth relinquishes all of its rights and entitlements with respect to those Tax Credits.

The transfer of the Tax Credits is effective immediately.
