- Consent of minutes: Harris, Ostrander
- Public comments and written comments: None at this time
- Human Rights Officer update
 - Mayor's office is currently working on the job description and must post it for 3 weeks.
 - Administration reached an agreement with Laura Laaksonen to stay on while a new HRO is found.
 - In the interim, complaints will go to Laura. She will then send the complaints to the Findings Committee. Will also push those to appropriate resources or the State as needed.

Legal limitations, Voting against their best interests, tape forums 4 weeks before elections, non-partisan.

- Committee Reports
 - Executive Team
 - Justin Page from the Justice Department in the Twin Cities reached out to see if we'd be interested in the training. This will be in conjunction with the Disabilities Commission.
 - Executive Committee met with Mayor 3/27: Meeting topics included ensuring the HR Commission is represented on the Human Rights Officer committee (2 HR commission members and 2 city council members) 29c-6 (Human Rights Chapter 29c). Executive Committee also advocated that the position not be placed within the City Attorney's office. The commissioners also discussed increasing the number of commissioners. There will be one new commissioner joining in mid-June. Carl Huber completed his two terms and is rotating off the Commission. This will have us at six commissioners and we still need three more. Mayor Reinhart agreed that the Human Rights Commission can resume with monthly statements on the City's social media.

■ The executive committee had discussion around updating bylaws and posting them online. We will need two meetings to accomplish this process. Commissioner Huber also suggested the Commission make a future meeting topic to review the Human Rights Ordinance.

■ Communications: Deaf History (April), APITA (May), Gay Pride (June)

■ ISD709 May Presentation: invite members of other commissions and city council. Will notify the ISD709 presenters of the invites.

■ Commissioners asked to meet with the City Council for their annual report.
