Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I feel very strongly that the arts in community not only enhance the value of the community but makes it more viable. I believe the "arts" humanizes us. It brings out our senses and joy into our lives. My passion has always been dance and ballet is my love. I currently serve as a staff member of the Minnesota ballet but I have previously served as a board member include board president. I know that my expertise, experience and knowledge will add value to this commission
