Subject: East Duluth Dog Park

People really enjoy all of the dog parks! It is probably as much for the people as for the dogs. We enjoy meeting the other people and form friendships. It socializes the dogs so that they are happier with each other and people. I believe that communities with dog parks are better communities. I have been to one in Rochester, MN a couple different times. It seems to be a part of a thriving community. Even tourists are happy about the dog parks. It is a part of a trend. It is obvious when you look at all of the dog friendly hotels and motels. People love their dogs! You probably saw the motel add. This man says people wonder if they can get "lucky" in their motel room? He continues to say it is important to him. Then you hear him call, "here Lucky." We know tourists use the dog parks as well as hotels. Come on everyone we are a "tourist town".

Thanks in advance,
Artyce Fredlund (dog park lover)
