We will not have a tent during Grandma's Marathon this year.

We are applying for an extension of premise for Saturday, June 18th, to serve beer, Bloody Mary's, soda, and water in the parking lot. We will not serve food outdoors. We have rented a "beer truck" from Superior Beverages, and will have a small area set up with tables. We will only have the beverages available for sale during the day, shutting down outdoor service before the roads open, or around 2:00 PM.

Jill-

We won't require a license if it is just beer/liquor that you're serving outside. It's just an expansion of your liquor license so when you apply with the city they will send me your application to approve but we won't make you get our special event license without the food. Let me know if you have questions. Is this your new email I had another one for you? Just want to make sure I have the correct one now! ☺
