Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

Submitted 3/9/2015: Duluth resident in Congdon area retire from pastoral ministry. College studies in community and related matters. Coordinated aspects of large construction project while serving in an administrative role. Long-range planning for a graduate academic institution. An understanding of communities and needs through pastoral work. My work has been with healthy consumers as well as those suffering addiction. I believe that there are ways to mitigate the frequency of abusive situations through wise decision making.
