Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I've always had civil service as a passion, but recently, after hearing Mayor Larson speak and the State of the City address, I've felt an invigoration to help. Shortly thereafter, I met City Councilwoman Elissa Hansen at the Zenith Marketing Conference and we spoke of the ways "random" community members are able to help the city and which ways the City Council, in specific, could use help. I then emailed the City Council President, with whom I had been a member of the student government at UMD, and he advised I apply. Like Mayor Larson, since my first time visiting Duluth as a tourist, I knew I wanted to move here. And ever since I moved here, I knew I wanted to help improve this city. As I've learned, boards and commissions are useful ways to help. For that reason, I am interested in serving.
