The City has utilized body camera technology from AXON Enterprises (formerly Taser) and had separate disparate systems for police vehicle and interview room technology. Implementing this consolidated solution will standardize all police captured video evidence onto a single platform improving the management and efficiency of evidence gathering, allowing the use of new technology features, as well as reducing overall costs over the five-year period.

This purchase is under Minnesota State Contract 181678, Release P-994(5).
